Editorial Review

Review

"Pradis is Zondervan's software platform, which is...easy to use. Its 'tabbed' main window enables you to move from one resource to another quickly, and it has many features that today's marketplace demands. Here is just a small handful: search the entire library by topic, verse, word, or phrase; view search results by topic, book-chapter-verse, in context, or in concordance view; link books to scroll simultaneously; copy and paste verses, words, or whole chapters into other documents; right-click on a word in the Bible text to perform such actions as search, create a bookmark or study note, copy, and, select a 'Related Topic'...right-click on a word, point at 'Related Topics,' and have instant access to other resources that deal with that word. Many programs in today's bloat-ware are positively 'snailish.' Not so here....[Pradis has] virtually instantaneous lookup....Serious students of God's Word...can truly rejoice that software makes a difficult task easier." —
