Editorial Review

About the Author

When Ulrike Lemmin-Woolfrey's husband relocated to Melbourne, she found herself packing her bags and heading to the land Down Under. At first, the upside-down seasons in Australia threw her a little: hay fever in November, Christmas in summer, and snow in July took some getting used to, but she wasn't deterred. Since then, Ulrike has found plenty to love about Australia and has embraced her new home. She loves walking to the beach—a mere five minutes away—and getting her sugar fix at the many local “lolly” shops. Ulrike believes there is no better continent for a travel addict like herself to call home.

Originally from Hamburg, Germany, Ulrike has lived on three continents and in six countries, including the UK, Qatar, Oman, and the United Arab Emirates. All that moving around has made her a relocation expert—now she loves sharing her knowledge with others as a freelance writer specializing in travel and expat issues.
