Lights Out By Melissa Groeling

Even when the lights are out, he can still see you... Paul Holten's profession doesn't leave much room for doubt or con-science, but he's reaching his breaking point. The nightmares are getting worse, the jobs are getting harder to finish, and the volatile relationship with his boss Aaron is falling apart. Now faced with the possibility of an impending death sentence, Paul makes the fatal decision to run. Drawn into one hellish situation after another, he's forced to confront his dark past—and wonders if perhaps dying isn't the better option.
