The Heritage of World Civilizations: Brief Edition, Volume 2 (5th Edition)

By Albert M. Craig, William A. Graham, Donald M. Kagan, Steven Ozment, Frank M. Turner

A global perspective on the major narratives of world history.

Written by leading scholars in their respective fields, The Heritage of World Civilizations offers compelling and thorough coverage of the unique heritage of Asian, African, Middle Eastern, European and American civilizations while highlighting the role of the world's great religious and philosophical traditions. This comprehensive yet accessible survey of world history has been extensively revised to provide an even more global and comparative perspective on the events and processes that have shaped our increasingly interdependent world.

Editorial Review

Review

“...well-written, civilizations-focused text that is accessible to students without talking down to them.”

-Wayne Ackerson, Salisbury University

“The “Global Perspective” feature is superb. It is an excellent way to put themes into a global context, which brings significance to the topics of study.”

-Heather Barry, St. Joseph's College

“...a very good balance between topical, thematic, and chronological approaches. All three are necessary for students to derive the maximum value from the text.”

-Dr. Anthony R. Santoro, Christopher Newport University

“The greatest challenge my students usually face is how to deal with thematic and more complex ideas on a wide geographic & chronological range. This book helps that.”

-Kristen Post Walton, Salisbury University

About the Author

Albert M. Craig is the Harvard-Yenching research professor of history emeritus at Harvard University, where he has taught since 1959. A graduate of Northwestern University, he received his Ph.D. at Harvard University. He has studied at Strasbourg University and at Kyoto, Keio and Tokyo universities in Japan.
