Editorial Review

Review

"With "The Divine Conspiracy, " Willard joins the line of Thomas ? Kempis, Luther, Fenelon, Brother Lawrence of the Resurrection, Zinzendorf, Wesley, Frank Laubach, Dorothy Day, and other master apprentices of Jesus.... What distinguishes "The Divine Conspiracy" from many works in this genre is an extraordinary combination of simplicity and depth."--"Christianity Today""I am struck by the warmth of this book. Rarely have I found an author with so penetrating an intellect combined with so generous a spirit. Clearly he has descended with the mind into the heart, and from this place he touches us, both mind and heart."--Richard Foster, author of "Celebration of Discipline""This book belongs in the tradition of the great devotional classics."--"Christian Century"
